AN ANSWER.

TO THE FALSE AND SLANDEROUS STATEMENTS MADE BY C H J. TAYLOR, LATE U. S. MINISTER RESIDENT AND CONSUL GENERAL TO LIBERIA; CONCERNING THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE OF LIBERIA. BY F. E. R. JOHNSON, MONROVIA.

Dedicated to W. CALVIN CHASE, Editor of the Washington "BEE" Who so ably exposed this false pretender, and laid bare all his imperfections; and is known and respected in Liberia, as the only man, in America, who has dared to refute the false and malicious assertions circulated by him concerning Liberia.

By the Author.

ANSWER:

Some men mistake notority for fame and like the crank who attempted to destroy the City of Rome in order to have his name recorded on the pages of history, they will commit any act, however mean, low or disgraceful, to acquire notoriety. Such a man is Charles H. J. Taylor, quondam bootblack and news-boy, who having been too suddenly elevated to the position of United States Minister and Consul General to Liberia, demonstrated the truthfulness of the proverb, "Put a beggar on horseback and he will ride him to sheol."

After a few months stay in Liberia, this gentleman (?) suddenly left his post for the United States of America with the intention, as he alleged, of returning; but we are credibly informed that owing to his "beastly murder of the King's English" in his diplomatic dispatches and for other irregularities he was recalled by the American Government and his resignation requested. Taylor would have us believe that he resigned, voluntariily and that he would not return to Liberia for $10,000; but we all have read the fable of the fox and the grapes.

On his return to America, and before his resignation had taken effect, Taylor proceeded to make certain false, malicious and slanderous statements about the government and people of Liberia—not even sparing the President—in utter violation of the principles of international law. A few of these statements we propose noticing. But before doing so we must express our surprise that such prima facie falsehoods should have received credence in America, when we take into consideration the fact that such men as Dr. Pinney, Bishop Haven, Commodore Schufeldt and numerous others from America have visited Liberia, at different times and borne testimony directly contrary to the statements made by this unknown adventurer. The weight of evidence in favor of Liberia is so overwhelming that no reasonable mind could entertain the least doubt. Besides it is a principle of law that a witness who contradicts himself, either in or out of court, is not worthy of credence. It shows that the majority of the people of America are either extremely prejudiced to Liberia, or deplorably ignorant of its condition.

Taylor in one of his attacks on Liberia, says--

"A regiment over there consists of 380 men and 297 of them are Officers. A military Company is composed of 19 men. Only two of them are privates. You see 17 officers stand on one side of a street and order two men to shoulder arms."

Now by refering to the statute laws of Liberia, it will be seen that the general tactics of the militia—the policy and general regulations when in actual service, —and the forms of proceedings in Courts-martial &c., shall be the same as the United States service, that a Company consists of 40 rank and file, and that there are only 4 commissioned officers to every Company. Besides Taylor was never out of Monrovia, from the day that he landed, until he left us so snddenly, leaving his landlord and laundress sadder and wiser, when they found that his promises to pay them "Were nothing but leaves, nothing but leaves." From whence, then did he acquire the information that he gives so volubly? O Taylor thou art a notorious L--r.

Again he says:

"They have a Secretary of the Navy and not three muskets belonging to the government. The Republic has a Secretary of the Treasury and no national Currency. Sailors take some money there occasionaly when they are blown in by stress of weather. National Officials draw salaries that average about $6.50 a year. A man with $3,000 is fabulously rich. Any good poker player could bankrupt the Republic if he had $500 to start with. They promise the President $2,500 a year salary, but he wanted to resign and take a clerkship under me at $50. a month. Six-hundred dollars a year! It's a great Country! Why a shrewd man and a bright boy could run the whole Republic."

Taylor attempts to give the impression that the three first mentioned positions are held by three distinct persons; when the truth is, the Secretary of the Treasury is ex-officio Secretary of the Navy and War. True Liberia has no navy nor does she pretend to have any. The Secretary of the Treasury was made Secretary of the Navy at a time when Liberia had the nucleus for forming a Navy, and titles "stick" as Taylor will find to his cost, when he is dubbed in both hemispheres, as he now is in Liberia, the greatest L—r of the age. That she does not own three muskets is as false as the rest of his slanderous statements.

It is well known that several lines of steamers ply regularly between the principle Countries of Europe and the ports of Liberia; and that several European houses have long transacted business extensively in this Country. Besides we can point with pride to such Liberian merchantile houses as G. Moore and Son, R. A. Sherman, H. Cooper and Son, Williams Brothers, Crusoe &c., and to the farmers of Liberia who produce annually nearly a million pounds of coffee, and Liberian coffee is known as the best in the world, besides other tropical products. And yet this Munchausen the second, endeavors to convince the people of America, that our only source of revenue is from the ships which are "Occasionally blown in by stress of weather or drift in with the tide."!

That we have no national Currency is false. True it is not at par, but it is far more valuble than was that of America in the revolutionary days or the Confederate "shin-plaster."

His attack on the President is so glaringly and palpably false that it is scarcely worthy of notice. It is in keeping with his conduct on the 26th of July last, at the dinner given by the Mayor of Monrovia, on the health of President Cleveland being proposed, he (Taylor) arose and stated that before the democrats elected him to the Presidency, Mr. Cleveland was only known by the people of America, in connection with one Maria Halpen etc.

Since then we have had grave doubts as to his sanity.

Taylor well knows that the President and many other officials are not dependent on the salaries that they receive from the Government; and though the President is not expecting to inherit a fortune of $80,000 from his grandmother or some other imaginary relative he would think twice before employing Taylor as overseer of his farm.

He would also give the impression that the people of Liberia are, for the most part, paupers and live in a state of nudity.

"The prevailing fashion for men requires simply a plug hat and an umbrella, the taller the hat the higher the wearer stands in society." "In addition to a plug hat and umbrella, the President walks out in a long linen duster.,' "Women there, are not much on Easter bonnets, Seal-skin sacques or rare, lace, but give them a girdle of beads about twice as wide as your watch chain and they will wear it and be happy with nothing else."

One of the principle faults found with Liberia, heretofore, has been that the people dress too expensively for the condition of the country. Fineries of all description are annually imported into the country, to the amount of thousands of dollars, fashionable dresses of the latest make, Jewelry, some chaste and unique, bonnets and lace of all kinds, and our Ladies know how to utilize them. Our receptions are conducted so far above Taylor's idea of things, that at the few that he attended, he succeeded, remarkably well in making himself ridiculous. That's right, President Cleveland, send us just such another Clown, to break the monotony and to amuse the good people of Monrovia; for we miss Taylor sorely. The strangest dressed man during his stay here, was Taylor. Owing to a scarcity of wearing apparel, he was generally compelled to button up closely. Imagine to yourself a short-thick-set man about five feet high, with huge head, bull neck, and heavy jowl, coat closely buttoned up and having on an over-coat about five feet long, which trails behind him as he walks, and you will see Taylor as he was accustomed to walk out in the streets of Monrovia—, reminding one of the song,

"He is six foot one way
Four foot t'other.
And he weighs three-hundred pounds
His coat so large he couldn't pay the tailor,
And it wont go half way round,"

O Taylor! thou art a ridiculous creature. I hope that on your arrival in Washington, President Cleveland's butler made you a present of some of his cast off clothing for you need it badly. Perhaps the reception he speaks of where he "saw men elegantly attired in full evening dress, and on the same floor men who had nothing on but an over-coat and a collar," was given in a small native town in the vicinity of Monrovia called, Kroo-Town, which he was accustomed to visit at night.

We will give him the benefit of the doubt, and take this opportunity to express our joy that he found himself more in his element among the natives, than he did among the civilized population of Liberia. "Birds of a feather &c."

EMANCIPATION DAY.

The members of the Committee on arrangements, that is, those who are opposed to street parades, have cause to feel congratulated on the unanimous support they are receiving from the people. Hon. John Mercer Langston, who has been selected as the orator of the evening will be greeted by the most distinguished audience that ever assembled in this city. He will have among his hearers judges, senators and our very best white and colored citizens Senator Mandelson's letter was published last week, and others just received too late for publication. Prof. F. C. Miller, has volunteered to furnish music for this occasion which will be an interesting feature. Samuel Adams Wiggins, esq. a distinguished poetical author, has dedicated a poem, which will be read by Mrs. Ella V. Chase Williams, Abbeville, S. C. The exercises will be held at the Asbury M. E Church, cor. 11th and K sts n.w., Monday evening April 16th.

The BEE.

Published every Saturday at 1109 I street northwest, Washington, D. C.

ntered at the Postoffice at Washington C. as second-class mail matter.

EMANCIPATION DAY.

The BEE can feel congratulated on knowing that it has accomplished two necessary things which have tended to disgrace and humiliate the colored people in this community. It will be remembered that every year or prior to every Emancipation Celebration, the public departments, business and private houses have been invaded by dishonest collectors, or men claiming to collect for the Emancipation Celebration. We don't make this charge against all who were entrusted with books, but we do say that a majority of the book holders made no returns, thus throwing the responsibility of the Celebration on a few who had it in charge. The BEE succeeded in putting to an end those dishonest collectors, who went from door to door and every department asking for money to celebrate their freedom, when they knew perfectly well that it was not freedom that they wished to celebrate but some bar-room

If any procession takes place it will be, beyond all doubt a farce. Every military organization in the city decilned Mr. Marshall's invitation to parade next Monday, and where the procession is to come from can be easily stated. The 8th district, in which the Rev. Johnson lives, and who has been made Chief of Staff has failed up to this time to secure sufficient funds to build a charriot. A collection was taken up in his charge and only five dollars was collected, which is an evidence that even Bro her Johnson's Congregation opposes street parades. The second district in which Mr. Ralp Wormley resides and who is right aid, had not secured sufficient funds for a charriot. South Washington, the home of the Chief Marshall, Mr. Branson, and Mr. Marshall, the President, has about sixteen Social Clubs. Nothing of any importance has been accomplished as yet. At a meeting held last week, the book holders reported poor progress. Although a parade is published to take place, the intelligent colored people are opposed to it, and Monday will decide it, notwithstanding the No. 12 Editor of a "weakly" journal.

WAIT AND SEE.

One of our "weakly" contemporaries asserted last week that the parade Monday will be the largest ever had in this city; that Mr. Douglass will be listened to by a larger audience than Hon. J. M. Langston; as the BEE takes exceptions, the parade will be the smallest that ever took plac ; that it will not be a good farce; that the American people in this city would rather pay fifty cents to hear Prof. Langston than listen to Mr. Douglass free of charge. Mr. Douglass has never been able to fill a house on the occasion of these anniversaries, under the most favorable circumstances and it is not likely that he will be able to do so after the insult he allowed his white wife to offer to our highly respectable and intelligent colored women in this country, and especially when he has published his card declining to speak. The difference between Mr. Douglass and Prof. Langston is, the former will represent those whose ideas are of the past age, of which he is a pupil, while the latter represents the new and progressive dispensation. One will represent a class who will make monkeys of themselves on the occasion of street parades, the other represents an intelligent and progressive element of the colored people. Next Monday will convince our "weakly" contemporary whether the BEE'S opposition to street parades is endorsed. We do not oppose indoor meetings, we believe that street parades should be dispensed with and the money be used for a more beneficial purpose. No one but Mr. Douglass has asserted that there is a split in the celebration. There is no split, the fact is Mr. Douglass represents those who are in favor of a street parade, while the BEE represents those who are opposed to it.

THE WARING-McKINNEY TESTIMONIAL

The concert to be given for the benefit of Mesdames Waring and McKinney, a notice of which will be found in another column of this paper, promises to be an event of more than ordinary interest. When such reputable and public spirited gentlemen as Collector Cook, Recorder Trotter, Hon Robt. Smalls, Messrs W. H. A. Wormly, L C. Bailey. Isaac Landic and others unite in any effort, it means that the object for which they are banded together is one worthy of support. That the concert will be successful from a musical standpoint there can be no doubt. Several of our most popular vocalists have kindly tendered their services and are working with a zeal and determination that is sure to bring success. Notably among these may be mentioned Mrs. Martina Irving the popular soprano and the Jackson brothers, the one the leading tenor and the other the leading basso of the famous St. Augustine choir, the scene of Mrs. McKinney's early triumpth. Representatives of other church choirs, among whom are Miss Smith and others of Asbury, Miss Nichols of Israel, Miss Hamer of Zion Wesley, Mrs Ball of Bereau, Messrs, Nalle and Irving of the Presbyterian, Miss Young of St. Lukes, Messrs Cole Miller and Brodie of St. Mary's and others, have volunteered their services to assist in making this testimonial an event well worthy of remembrance. The letter tendering the benefit is somewhat in the nature of an ovation. The donors seem for the once to have laid aside all differences and regardless of church creeds and denominations, of sex and conditon, have united to do honor to these two estimable ladies. This is as it should be; for in all such efforts we should be governed wholly by christian charity and fellowship. Who knows but that the combination of all these elements in a cause appealing so strongly to the better impulses of the heart, may be the means of more firmly uniting our people upon questions affecting their moral, intellectural and material progress? "'T'is a consumation most devoutly to be wished for."

SHERMAN JUSTLY AVAIABLE WITH COLORED VOTERS.

MR. SHERMAN IS THE LEADING AND MOST POPULAR CANDIDATE IN THIS, THAT HE CAN CARRY MORE VOTES OF COLORED CITIZENS THAN ANY OTHER.

This is shown by the support given him by colored delegates in the National Convention of 1880, by the strong current of opinion in newspapers published by colored citizens; and is a result of "the logic of events," which proves that he has done as much if not more good, effective service than any living American statesman in behalf of human freedom, the protection of the citizens of the civil and political rights of colored citizens, and their intellectual and moral progress.

The history of his devotion to the rights of the colored race is that of his manhood life, and antedates the organization of the Republican party. The Missouri Compromise of 1820 solemnly declared that slavery should never be extended north of thirty-six degrees and thirty minutes north latitude. The repeal of this by the Kansas-Nebraska act of 1854 was designed to carry slavery into Kansas, and the "Dred-Scott decision" of 1857 emphasized the purpose avowed in Calhoun's resolutions of Febuary 19, 1847, to carry slavery into every Territory of the United States. Prior to 1855 the two great political parties had been the Whig, with which Mr. Sherman was allied, and the Democratic. The Freesoil party had made some progress as a separate party. The repeal by the Democrats in Congress in 1854 of the Missouri Compromise led to a reorganization of parties. The Whig and Freesoil parties were abandoned; the great body of the Whigs, Freesoiler , and the anteslavery Democrats "fused" in 1854, in Ohio, under the name of the Anti-Nebraska party. This fusion nominated Mr. Sherman, then only thirty-one years of age, as a candidate for Representative in Congress in the strong Democratic Richland district, in which he resided, and he was triumphantly elected. Following this election the Republican party was organized. Its first State Convention, of which Mr. Sherman was President, was held in Ohio July 13, 1855. It adopted an anti-slavery platform, and nominated Salmon P. Chase for Governor, and other canidates for other offices. Mr. Sherman's speech on that occasion put him in the front rank in opposition to slavery extension. On July 16th, at a ratification meeting at Mansfield, he offered resolutions, which were adopted, indorsing the platform and candidates and made a speech which rang through the nation, as terse, as far reaching in purpose, and more grand and eloquent even than Lord Mansfield's immortal decision in the Somerset case, whose terms in prose have been translated into the fervid exclamation of Cowper:

"Slaves can not breathe in England; if their lungs
Receive our air, that moment they are free:
They touch our country, and their shackles fall.
That's noble! and bespeaks a Nation proud."

Then followed the contest in Congress, whether slavery should secure the fruits of repeal.

Mr. Sherman first took his seat in the House of Representatives at the opening of its session in Dec. 1855, when there was a fierce and protracted struggle attending the election of speaker. On the ninety-ninth ballot he gave his reason for voting for General Banks, as follows:

"I care not whether he is a member of the American party or not. I have been informed that he is, and I believe that he is; but I repeat, I care not to what party he belongs. I understand him to take this position, that the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was an act of great dishonor, and that, under no circumstances whatever, will he, if he have the power, allow the institution of human slavery to derive any benefit from that repeal. That is my position. I have been a Whig, but I will yeald all party preferences, and will act in concert with men of all parties and opinions who will steadily aid in preserving our Western territories for free labor; and I say now that I never will vote for a man for Speaker of this House unless he convinces me by his conduct and by his views that he never will, if he has the power to prevent it, allow the institution of slavery to derive any advantage from repeal ing the compromise of 1820.

A variety of resolutions were introduced, as the balloting for Speaker was continued, propounding interrogatories as to the political opinions of the several candidates. Mr. Sherman finally introduced one which read thus:

"Resolved, That the only tests of the opinions of any candidate for public office are his votes and acts; and that no man ought to occupy the high position of Speaker of this House whose opinions upon important political questions are so unknown that it is necessary to examine him as a witness."

Kansas had meanwhile become a battle-ground between the advocates of slavery from the South and the opponents of it from the free States, each faction hoping to secure the ascendancy. A state of violence, amounting to actual civil war, ensued, and numbers were killed in guerrilla contests. Rival State Governments were established, each with its Constitution, Governor, and Legislature, while acts horrible atrocity were committed by organized bands of "Border Ruffians," who roamed about the country plundering and often murdering peacable and unoffending settlers. The matter became so serious that the House of Representatives passed a resolution, on the 19th of March, authorizing the appointment of a committee of three by the Speaker to enquire into and collect evidence in regard to the troubles in Kansas generally, and particularly in regard to any fraud or force attempted or practiced in relation to any of the elections which had taken place in that Territory.

Mr. Sherman, in his first term in Congress, was placed on the committee, and though he was not chairman, yet he wrote the elaborate, exhaustive, and able report which was submitted to the House July 1, 1856. This, the first great document on the subject ever submitted to Congress by any statesman of the Republican party, secured in its varied results freedom to Kansas, and gave such impetus to the Republican cause as to insure its ascendancy to the control of the National Government with the election of Mr. Lincoln in 1860.

SUFFRAGE IN THE DISTRICT

INDORSING SENATOR BLAIR'S BILL CONFERRING POLITICAL RIGHTS.

At the meeting of the National Republican Club, held at their rooms, No. 1010 F street n w., Monday night, Hon. A. M. Clapp, president, in the chair, the following, after discussion, was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Hon. Henry W. Blair, senator from New Hampshire, has introduced in the Senate an amendment to the constitution of the United States confering representation in Congress and the electorial college upon the people of the District of Columbia, thereby inaugurating a measure which, if approved by Congress and the states, will give to said people their political rights and remove the reproach which the denial of said rights has so long cast upon republican institutions; therefore,

Resolved, That the National Republican Club of the District of Columbia heartily indorses the proposed amendment, and cordially tenders its thanks to Senator Henry W. Blair for his action in this matter.

The fellowing was also adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of five members be appointed by the president of the club, of which committee the president shall be chairman, to urge upon Congress the adoption of the proposed amendment to the constitution confering political rights upon the people of the District of Columbia and the submission of said amendment to the several states for their approval and adoption.

The following committee was appointed: A. M. Clapp, chairman; Appleton P. Clark, Frank Aldrich, A. C. Richards and F. G. Barbadoes.

The club also authorized the appointment of a committee, to consist of at least one member in each of the twenty two legeslative divisions of the District, to make a thorough canvass in the interest of the proposed amendment.

INHUMAN BUTCHERY.

FOUR COLORED MEN LYNCHED.

(Richmond Planet.)

And still the inhuman work goes on. On the 18th inst., Jeff Curry a colored miner employed at Blue Creek mines near Birmingham, Ala., had a dispute with a white miner named Powell. The latter had him arrested upon the charge of carrying a pistol. The officers arrested Curry, and while on the way to town a mob of disguised men took him from the officers and riddled his body with bullets.

In Wharton county, Texas, on the 29th inst., two colored men were murdered in cold blood. It was near the scene of the lynching of nine persons February 28th. Another colored man was threatened with the same fate and had to leave.

At Hayneville, Ala., on the 29th ult., Theodore Calloway a colored man, charged with the murder of a white man was taken from jail, and hanged to a tree in front of the court house and his body riddled with bullets.

Let any right thinking man regardless of race or color read the above and see if he will not decide with us that lynch-law must go! This lawlessness is a blot upon our civilization, and a shame upon the government allowing it. The lynchers of Jeff Curry have been arrested. As to what will be the outcome of the trial almost any school-boy can tell.

For showing a spark of manhood he is hanged to a tree while the law sleeps. De-pite all this let all colored men respect themselves, stand up for their rights, and when they die, meet death like heroes of old. Cowardice is to be despised, Lynch-law must go! Any man or body of men who would take a defenseless man and hang him without allowing him a chance for his life, are too foul for hell itself. May the American people awaken for lynch-law must go!

RECOGNIZING HIS SERVICES.

DR. C. B. PURVIS RECEIVES A GIFT.

Prof. T. B. Hood, Dean of the Medical Pharmaceutical and Dental Departments of Howard University, gave a reception to his colleagues on the evening of the fifth. The occasion was a very enjoyable one. Towards the close of the evening, the Dean, in a neat speech surprised the Secretary of the Faculty—Prof. C. B. Purvis—by presenting him in behalf of his fellow professors, a full set of Appleton's English Encyclopedia.

Dr. Purvis deserves this excellent present at the hands of Dr. Hood for his invaluble services to the Hospital and Howard University medical school.

THEY SAY

No man can depend on himself.

Men are made great by the aid of others.

They are fooled sometimes by their own folly.

A baby thinks sometimes that it can walk, but when an attempt is made it gets fooled.

So it is with some men who have others to aid them.

After using them they think they are strong enough to go it alone.

Always be sure you are right and then go ahead.

Jerry Robinson wanted to be Chief Marshal but when he refused to pay $25.00 he was let alone.

He would have paid, so he said, but Geo. demanded it cash.

Fat Jerry couldn't see the point.

He can't attend to his business because he has a grievance.

He will die some day on account of his defeat.

Poor Jerry, alas his ambition was frustrated.

Whenever you meet him he has something to say about the Emancipation.

The Editor of the "Weakly Pattent Back" who had a column on the Editor of the BEE in the PEOPLE'S ADVOCATE would do better by using his feet in a dye house.

Those No. 12's spoiled the Potomac water some time ago.

The farmers need such things at present for beets, potatoes, Cabbage, &c.

They will make the ground richer.

The next case he has in court he will send his client to the penitentiary.

He was the cause of the Mississippi legislature passing a law for separate cars for colored people.

The judge complimented him for such an able arguement.

If the parade is to be a great one why worry about the Editor of the BEE.

People who are no good are passed unnoticed.

It is the troublesome person who is abused.

Trotter is a failure as Recorder of Deeds.

The President will be forced to remove him before his administration expires.

Will Matthews be cared for before the expiration of the present administration?

Sherman Clubs will not entitle officers and members to free passes.

A novel way to get passes.

Major Cox is the most stylish military officer in town.

The Butler Zouaves have been disbanded.

Treachery must give way to sincerity.

Major Fisher proved himself to be an honest man.

Never throw old friends aside for ambitious upstarts.

Those officials who preferred charges against Major Fisher were themselves found to be incompetent, and their Commissions taken away and the organization disbanded.

Some people will accuse others of a wrong of which they are guilty.

A talkative woman finds many faults in those who are virtuous.

When you hear a woman, who has been intimate with a female friend, say that she didn't like the way things went before they fell out, ascertain first who she is and where she came from.

Search her record and you will be convinced that she is a Baltimore demi-monde.

A jealous woman will injure the innocent.

An honest woman will not continuously praise her own virtues.

She is in the eyes, of others dishonest.

Come and hear Langston, Monday night.

Mr. Samuel Tylor, one of the leading church workers in the city and trustee of the Asbury Church has been elected as a delegate from the Washington Conference to the General Conference, which will meet in New York, May 1st. This it a compliment to a worthy church worker. Mr. Tylor is a man of much executive ability.

The pastor of St. Paul Church, 8th street s. w, Rev. C. W. Fitzhugh and his church will go to Baltimore, Sunday April 22nd to visit the A. M. E. Conference that will be in session in that city at that time They have arranged with the Baltimore & Ohio Rail Road to carry all who desire to go at half rates, that is $1.30 round trip; the special train will leave the New Jersey Ave., depot at 8 a. m. sharp. The citizens can have a fine opportunity to see the monumental city and the A. M. E. orators at the same time. The Editor of the BEE and many of his friends will go. Don't fail to remember the time; Sunday morning, April 22nd.

PERSONALS.

Hon. J. M. Langston has arrived in the city.

Mr. J. W. Thompson, Editor of the PEOPLE'S JOURNAL, Jacksonville, Fla., met with an accident several weeks ago, and had both arms and several ribs broken.

Mrs. L. Chase and her daughter Ida, who have been suffering with neuralgia, are much better.

Rev. E. W. Williams, of Abbeville, S. C, will pass through the city on his way to Philadelphia next month, to attend the Centennial of the Woman's Presbyterian Home Mission.

Mr. J. E. Morgan who has been confined to his room with the vertigo is able to be out again.

Miss Lizzie Bailey who was married to Rev. W. L. Burnell, left for Alexandria Va., Thursday evening, where they will spend a week with friends.

Mrs. J. G. Hutchins has been presented with a fine boy and she is now enjoying herself with her son, at her mothers in Virginia, where she has been for two months and will probably remain several months longer.

Rev J. J Jones was ordained at the 2nd Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon, in the presence of the distinguished Baptist Divines of this city, by Rev. W. Bishop Johnson and others. The exercises were very impressive. Mr Jones is a young man of ability and is in charge of a large church, north.

A FASHIONABLE MARRIAGE.

The St. Luke's Church on Thursday evening presented a most fashionable appearance. The select guests who assembled on the inside, and the prattling little ones on the outside asking admission recalled the happy moments of what was soon to take place. It was the marriage of Miss Lizzie Bailey of Richmond Va., to Rev. Walter L. Burrell, formerly pastor of the Episcopal Church, Alexandria, Va. At precisely 6:30 o'clock the bridal party arrived at the church accompanied by Mrs. Burk and Son of Alexandria, Miss Alice Jones and mother, who has had the tender care of the lady, and who regarded, and so treated her as a daughter, and Mr. Waring Fearing, who had the honor to give her away. Dr. Crommell performed the ceremonies which were very impressive. The bride was handsomely attired in a goblin travelling dress very becoming to her symetrical figure, and the groom Rev. Burrell in a very becoming suit of black. After the ceremonies the bridal party repaired to the depot and took the Alexandria, Va., train for that place where they will remain one week, the guest of Mrs. Burk's, after which Mr. and Mrs. Burrell will leave for Charleston W. Va., where Rev. Burrell has a church.

THE PHILOMATHEAN.

The 2nd Baptist church was filled last Thursday night with a distinguished audience. Rev. W. Bishop Johnson read a paper on difficulties, cause and cure. The paper was logical and well read, and was discussed by Messrs. Cook, Smith McCoy, T. K. Chase and others. Miss Mattie White sang and played two pretty solos which were very acceptable to the audience. Miss Moten the directress also played a very pretty instrumental solo. Next Thursday Mr. Geo. W. Jackson will read a paper entitled "Have Negroes proven themselves capable of self-government."

BETHEL LITERARY.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather a good house greeted Mr. Geo. W. Jackson of Ind., at the Bethel Literary Tuesday evening where he re-read his popular-growing paper entitled: "Has the Negro proven himself capable of self-government". Mr. Jackson fully sustained his reputation for ability and originality and was frequently interrupted with applause. As a whole, the paper is a masterpiece of composition and is well-worthy the attention of the reading and thinking public. A solo, by Miss Helen Collins, was excellently rendered and another by way of encore was no less appreciated. The paper was then discussed by Messrs Geo. H Richardson, Morris, Rev. W. H Scott; Rev. Walter H. Brooks, and Hon. John H. Smyth. The latter vigorously attacked, not the paper, but the essayest and grew very personal in his remarks. Mr. Smyth said that the book of Mr. T. McCants Steward did not contain the truth; that it was false; that Stewart did not go 50 miles from Monrovia while in Africa; that he got his data from his (Smyth's) library. When Mr. Jackson took the floor to answer the arguments of Morris, Brooks and Smyth, the latter foamed and fretted. He was continually interrupting the essayest. He finally grew desperate and desired to know what the essayest was talking about. When Mr. Jackson replied that if the book of T. M. McCants Stewart was a tissue of lies it was the duty of our Minister John H. Smyth to have confuted them and informed the American public of their falsity.

Commissioner of oysters J. H. White, still reports increased revival in the buisness along the landings.

A COMPLIMENTARY TESTIMONIAL CONCERT.

Washington, D.C, April 6th, 1888

Mesdames Sarah Waring and Lena M. McKinney:

Ladies:

The undersigned, wishing to show their high appreciation of your successful efforts to elevate the standard of music in our midst and the willing assistance you have rendered various charitable enterprises, hereby tender you a complementary concert to be given at such time and place as may be best suited to you.

Trusting that the foregoing may meet your approval we are

Very respectfully yours,

John F. Cook, Robert Smalls, James M. Trotter, Wm. H. Smith, Wm. H. A. Wormly, Henry Johnson, John H. Smyth, L. C. Bailey, Robt. P. Terrell, Jerome A. Johnson, John A. Pierre, F. C. Cardoza, R. H. Gleaves, Walker Lewis, David Warner, Archie Lewis H. E. Baker, David Messer, H. A. Jackson, Thomas Martin, J. W. Cole, Isaac Landic, J. H. Merriwether, J. Harvey Smith, Geo. M. Arnold, R. W Tompkins, Wm. H. Black, O. Atwood, John T. Gaskins, J. W. Mayse, Robert C. Douglass, A. A. Brodie, Parker N. Bailey, Wesley Howard, F. C. Miller, Nathan Sprague, John C. Nalle, Leon Turner, Dr. W. Howard, Mesdames J. H. Smith, J. W. Cole, J. A. Johnson, Wesley Howard, R. Moore, Sarah White, R. Throckmorton, Rebecca Langley, A. Quander, M. Washington B. Gresson, M. Moore, C. Thornton, H. Harvey, A. Dudley, Misses Barbara E. Pope, Annie Sprague, M. R. Bowen, Sarah Lewis, Violet Tibbs, Sarah Janifer, M. Dean, Jennie Tibbs, Georgia Makell, Emma F. G. Merritt, M. Lemons, F. Ware, E. Thomas, M. Welch, F. Cole, L. Shorter, A. Smith, G. Garnett, Sarah Robinson, Mary Nalle, Dr. F. J. Shadd.

Washington, D. C, April 10th, 1888.

Messrs. John F. Cook, J, M. Trotter, Robt. Smalls, Henry Johnson, Wm. H. A. Wormley, Walker Lewis, L. C. Bailey, R. H. Gleaves, Jno. H. Smyth, Mesdames, J. W. Cole, J. A. Johnson, J. H. Smyth, Misses M. R. Bowen, Emma Merritt, Babara Pope, Sarah Lewis, Mary Nalle, Annie Sprague and others—

Refering to your communication of the 6th inst, relative to a concert for our joint benefit, we beg leave to say that this evidence of your appreciation is exceedingly gratifying. Whatever assistance we may have rendered the various charitable enterprises, referred to in your letter, was done without any thought of reward other than the consciousness of having served a worthy cause. Your proposition meets our hearty approval and we name Monday May 7th, as the time and the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, as the place. Please accept our thanks for this token of your kindly feeling toward us and believe us to be, truely and sincerely yours,

SARAH WARING.
LENA M. MCKINNEY.

UNWILLING TO BECOME FUSSILIZED IN THE GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

Dr. C. Perez has severed his connection with the War Dept. and is now engaged at the Freedman's Hospital as an assistant to the resident physician. We wish him much success in his new field of labor. The resignation of Dr. Parez is no doubt a surprise to many. He has been a clerk in the War Department, Adjutant Generals Office, for a number of years and has demonstrated his capabilities and has received the highest commendation from his superior officers. Dr. Perez did not wait until he was discharged from the department like many who do, but like a man of courage he has entered the field to win or lose. Dr. Purvis has made an excellent selection in the appointment of Dr. Perez as an assistant to Dr. Shadd, who is one of the finest men in the medical profession. By reason of our former connection with the War Department and having been officially associated with him we can testify to the fact that he has made an excellent record and it is hoped that he will make as good a record in his new field of labor as when he was a clerk in the department. He is a young man of ability and has the respect and confidence of a large circle of friends in this city and we bespeak for him a brilliant future

SOUTH WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Thirteenth Anniversary of the Virginia Avenue Baptist Sunday School, took place on Sunday last, at three o'clock p. m. and was largely attended by members of the church and by many visitors from our sister schools, including the Sixth Street Baptist Sunday School. After the report of the secretary, Miss M. E. Wilson, which showed a collection and expenditure of $88, an enrolled scholarship of 400, and officers and teachers 20, the following named gentlemen addressed the school: Samuel Smith, S. A. Sumby and R. H. Gunnell Among the most attractive things of the session was the bass solo rendered by Mr. E. T. Holmes.

The most of the sunday schools and churches in this community have positively refused to take any part in the Emancipation Celebration; and among them are the Zion Baptist and the Virginia Avenue Baptist Sunday Schools.

Contracter Wm. H. Wheeler, of the Virginia Avenue Baptist Church, is now making another move in his work upon the new church edifice, and expects to have the basement completed by their grand rally, the second Sunday in May.

The Sociable at Mrs. M. A. Brown's, 216 F st. on Monday evening last was largely attended and enjoyed.

The citizens of this section are fighting the railroad schems in Congress, and the weakness of the District Commissioners.

MISS EDNORAH NAHAR, OF BOSTON

Who has achieved so much success as a public reader, will appear in a literary and musical entertainment for the benefit of the

BEREAN BAPTIST CHURCH,

on Monday evening, April 23rd, at the Metropolitan A. M. E. church, M st. n.w. Miss Nahar's persistent study and native talent have placed her at once in the front rank of her profession; and no one who is capable of appreciating real excellence in this somewhat exclusive art should lose an opportunity to hear this gifted young lady. Some of the best of our local talent will furnish the musical part of the entertainment. Admission 25cts. Seats may be reserved for 10cts additional, after April 15th. Tickets sold and seats reserved at Ellis' music store 937 Penn. ave. avt

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF
PURE COD LIVER OIL
AND PHOSPHATES OF LIME. SODA. IRON.

The truly wonderful effect produced by Dr. Alexander B. Wilbor's Compound of Pure Cod-Liver Oil and Phosphates renders it beyond doubt the most perfect preparation of its kind known to-day.

Consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, debility, wasting diseases and all scrofulous humors disappear under its influence. It is almost as palatable as cream. It can be taken with pleasure by delicate persons and children, who, after using it, become very fond of it. It assimilates with the food, increases the flesh and appetite, builds up the nervous system, restores energy to mind and body, creates new, rich and pure blood, in fact, rejuvenates the whole system. flesh, blood, nerve, brain. This preparation is far superior to all other preparations of cod-liver oil; it has many imitators, but no equals. The results following its use are its best recommendations. Be sure, as you value your health, and get the genuine. Manufactured only by DR. ALEXANDER B. WILBOR, Chemist, Boston, Mass.

43. Building Plans for Practical, Low-cost Houses. A full description and plans of Eight modern houses, ranging in price from $500 to $4500. Illustrated.
44. Anecdotes of Public Men—Washington, Franklin, Webster, Clay, Tilden, Lincoln, Scott, Grant, Garfield, Gladstone, Butler, Hancock, Lee, and all the leading men of the century.
45. Æsop's Fables. The work of an ancient grain Children have read them for centuries, and grown people quote them every day.
46. Romeo and Juliet. By William Black. An exquisite sketch of two foolish lovers, who mingle tender sentiment with the ludicrous in a way to make everybody smile. This author's stories are always racy and full of telling points.
47. Enoch Arden, and other gems. By Alfred Tennyson. For purity of style, genuine sweetness and touching pathos, the great poet has never surpassed his "Enoch Arden." In this poem of human devotion he is at his best, and one cannot know the poet-laureate without knowing it.
48. Cardinal Richelieu. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. The character of the wily, ambitious and brilliant French primate, as sketched by Bulwer in his immortal play of Cardinal Richelieu, is the one which has become historic. It is a master-piece of dramatic composition.
49. Paul and Virginia. By Bernadin de St. Pierre. This elegant household classic renews its freshness and beauty with every reading. It is the "story that never dies," told in the purest language and undercut style. Part I. 50. Part II of above.
51. Miss Toosey's Mission, and Laddie. Two of those rarely conceived and charmingly told stories of home and duty which refresh and inspire. They ought to be read by every young person who has the world before him.
52. Peg Woffington. By Charles Reade. This masterpiece by the great novelist is one of those exquisite mosaics with which great minds ornament their work. Not to know Peg Woffington is not to know Reade. Part I. 53. Part II of above.
54. Money. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. Whoever read Shakspeare's "Merchant of Venice" should read Bulwer's "Money." Under the above title you see the coinage and here the jingle of the full play.
55. Rasselas, Prince of Abyssinia. By Dr. Samuel Johnson. One of those immortal writings by a master mind which no one can afford not to read. It is a story of the human heart in its happiest moods, earnest longings, and noblest aspirations. Part I. 56. Part II of above.
57. William Shakespeare; How, When, Why and What he wrote. By E. A. Yates. There never has been compressed into such brief space so much about the immortal "Bard of Avon" as in this work of the brilliant French author. It will open the eyes of the reader to a thousand things he never dreamed of
58. Doom! An Atlantic Episode. By Justin H. McCarthy. A powerful and thrilling story of life on an American liner. The situations are natural, the plot intense, the sketching exquisite. The hand of a master is visible from the "all aboard" as Liverpool, to the terrible landing at New York.
59. Julia and Her Romeo. By David Christie Murray. This author is always ingenious and racy. In "Julia and Her Romeo" he is particularly charming. The reader is held to the last in a spell which makes him regret the end of the story.
60. The Lady of Lyons. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. This is the lady as seen in the celebrated play of the same name. It ranks as the prettiest picture of devotion and sincerest expression of the "tender passion" ever placed on the stage.
61. The Cricket on the Hearth. By Charles Dickens. One of the sweetest and tenderest things ever written by Dickens. All love it for its beauty and pathos, and it will be preserved and read long after some of his most imaginative works have been forgotten.
62. Stabbed in the Dark. By E. Lynn Lytton. A strong, stirring story of the old Napoleonic days, by an author who invents ingenious plots and handles intricate situations like a master. Part I. 63. Part II.
64. Calderon the Courtier. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. One of the best of the great author's historic stories. Full of graphic situations, quick action, and rare information.
65. She; or Adventures in the Caves of Kor. By H. Rider Haggard. This unique and popular story is a new departure in the field of fiction. Its production has carried the author into fame as a writer and artist. The vigor and variety of the book make it especially charming; its narrative imparts a pleasant thrill as it glides through wonderful scenes and startling events. Part I. 66. Part II. 67. Part III. 68. Part IV. of above.
69. Bulldog and Butterfly. By David Christie Murray. A spirily told story of human character, yes not a bit overdrawn. Bulldogs and Butterflies are all around us.
70. The Coming Race, or New Utopia. By Sir E. Bulwer Lytton. A thrilling history of life among an ideal people found in the centre of the earth, where the beauties are Arcadian, the form perfect, the thought pure and motive free. A charming book; light, cheerful. Part I. 71. Part II of above.
72. Duty Unto Death, or Life and Work of Rev. George C. Haddock, Apostle of Prohibition in the Northwest. By his brother, John A. Haddock. The murder of this great pulpit and platform orator and eloquent temperance champion sent a thrill of horror through the Northwest and entire country. The work is an ably written review of the man and his career, and contains a graphic account of his assassination. Part I. 73. Part II of above.
74. The Trial of Pickwick. By Charles Dickens. This is the first time the entire story of the gallant Pickwick's adventures with the impressionable Mrs. Bardell has appeared in connected form. It abounds in ludicrous situations and mirth-provoking incidents.
75. Allan Quatermain; the latest and best novel from the pen of the popular H. Rider Haggard. In this story of African adventure, the author surpasses the glowing descriptive vigor, startling situation and thrilling activity that made "She" such a revelation in fiction. No more exciting romance has ever come to the surface in English literature and it must share the popularity of all his other works. Part I. 76. Part II. 77. Part III. 78. Part IV of above.
79. The Knightsbridge Mystery. By Charles Reade. One of those ingeniously devised and thrillingly told stories which immortalized Reade. The plot is a work of art. Concealment is the artist's game, till after winding through a forest of mysteries, the fearful steel bursts on the reader like an Alpine avalanche or ocean water-spout.

SECURE A HOME IN THE LAND OF FLOWRS
DINSMORE!

One of the growing towns of the South, is situated on both sides of Savan ah, Florida & Western Railroad, just twelve miles from Jacksonville, Fla. It is high, dry and level, and a successful horticultural and truck-growing section of the State. Dinsmore can be easily reached from Jacksonville by railroad, by water route, or by an hour and a half drive over an excellent plank and shell road.

Dinsmore is not one of the isolated spots that is only laid out on paper, but a thriving prosperous town that recommends itself to capitalist and laborer, to fathers and wives who are vigilant over their own interests and the welfare of their children, to those who are seeking homes and those who have capital to invest for speculation.

The land can be obtained at remarkably low figures and on terms suitable to the condition of every purchaser. At the present low figures a poor man can make regular payments on a valuable home with less than the aggregate of unnecessary expense or money actually thrown away. It is an investment that one cannot regret and through which you will realize many times the amount invested. The prices are for Front Business Lots one acre, $65, $50, $35. Second choice, $25 $18. Third choice $15. Fourth choice $10. Fifth choice, $5. It must be remembered that these are acre lots.

We also have vegetable and truck farms laid out adjacent to Dinsmore, containing from five to sixteen acres each, which we offer for the benefit of those who wish to farm at $5 acre.

Our terms are one fourth cash and balance in one, two and three years.

The chain of title will be short and strong. It is from the State of Florida to the Railroad and from the Railroad to you.

Truck farming around Dinsmore would be at the door of two of the greatest markets in the South. Let every poor man if with but one dollar, commence to buy a lot in Dinsmore. The fare from Jacksonville and return is only twenty-five cents. Think of it. There are eight passenger trains per day and the round trip will only cost twenty-five cents. Trout creek, a large stream passes right through the vicinity, thus affording pure fresh water for stock, perfect drainage and abundance of fish.

TAKE WARNING NOW, and do not let this grand opportunity slip you. It is the very best chance you will have to secure a good piece of valuable property and such startling prices.

The merchants in Dinsmore are enjoying a good trade and the town is rapidly growing. Saw mills are convenient for securing timber to build, and laborers who desire work can get from a dollar and a half to two dollars per day.

For further information or plats and how to see Dinsmore, call on or address,

Yes, Yes, I'm agent for the Ladies Home Companion, the leading Household paper. It's the paper for the people. And it's easy to make several dollars a day by getting subscribers for it, as anybody can afford to take the paper. It's so good and so cheap. Yes, agents are wanted everywhere. Just write to the publishers for their confidential terms to agents and you will be surprised at the big cash commission they give. They pay agents a bigger cash commission than any other publishers, and the papers published by them are so popular that they have 300,000 subscribers. If you want to make money easy, write for terms to agents, on their two papers, the LADIES HOME COMPANION and the FARM AND FIRESIDE. Address

Agents earn several hundred dollars in commissions in a single season and incur no personal responsibility. Enquire at the nearest newspaper office and learn that ours is the best known and best equipped establishment for placing advertisements in newspapers and conveying to advertisers the information which they require in order to make their investments wisely and profitably. Men of good address, or women, if well informed and practical, may obtain authority to solicit advertising patronage for us. Apply by letter to Geo. P. Rowell & Co., Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 10 Spruce St., New York, and full particulars will be sent by return mail.

PISO'S CURE FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.
Piso's Cure for Consumption is also the best
Cough Medicine.
If you have a Cough without disease of the Lungs, a few doses are all you need. But if you neglect this easy means of safety, the slight Cough may become a serious matter, and several bottles will be required.
CONSUMPTION

Piso's Remedy for Catarrh gives immediate relief. Catarrhal virus is soon expelled from the system, and the diseased action of the mucous membrane is replaced by healthy secretions.
The dose is small. One package contains a sufficient quantity for a long treatment.
CATARRH
A Cold in the Head is relieved by an application of Piso's remedy for Catarrh. The comfort to be got from it in this way is worth many times its cost.
Easy and pleasant to use.
Price, 50 cents. Sold by druggists or sent by mail.

SAMUEL HOWARD
Private and Public Caterer calls the attention of the public to the fact that he can serve them with Oysters in every style. I am the celebrated American French cook, having cooked at Wormleys Hotel for ten years, and I can give general satisfaction to all who may apply. I also call the attention to my Dining and Oyster Saloon, A place where you can sit down and be served with Oysters or Meals and enjoy yourselves. I do this that my friends may know that there is a place where they can be served with Lunches and meals in a proper style. Salt water oysters served by the Pint, Quart or Gallon in any part of the city. Please don't forget the number. The little Cosey Cave, 320 I st., n. w.
